Pogba ban heartache

By Jeremy Cross

PAUL POGBA has been left "heartbroken" after being hit with a four-year ban for a doping offence.

It means he will be unable to play again until 2027, when he will be 34, with the ban backdated to the date of the failed test.

The ex-Manchester United star, above, said: "Everything I have built in my professional career has been taken away from me. It's heartbreaking. As a

DIVIDING OPINION: Fernandes against Fulham

INCIDENT: Fernandes goes down and Fulham's response, below

By David McDonnell

ERIK TEN HAG branded Fulham "out of order" and demanded they apologise for mocking Bruno Fernandes on social media.

Fulham posted a clip on their TikTok account, digging out Fernandes for supposedly play-acting late in the 2-1 win at Manchester United last Saturday.

Ten Hag said Fulham were wrong to post the clip, which clocked up more than 54,000 likes and fuelled the perception of Fernandes as a play-actor. The United manager said: "It's totally out of order and
