FOD: I'LL GET EVEN BETTER!

BY DAVID McDONNELL
PHIL FODEN warned his rivals he can get even better - after tearing apart Manchester United with his derby double.

England star Foden took his goal tally for the season to a career-best 18 with his second-half strikes in Manchester City's 3-1 win on Sunday.

Pep Guardiola hailed Foden (above) as the best player in the Premier League right now, but the 23-year-old reckons he can take his game to another level.

"I'm playing my best football, consistently as well," Foden said. "I'm really happy with the way I'm playing and I want to keep it up. I've just grown as a player."

"Each year, I put the work in on the training pitch and now I'm getting the rewards I believe I deserve. I want to keep it up, keep working hard and hopefully keep scoring"

Arteta's rampant side tear hapless Blades to shreds

BY JOHN CROSS
MIKEL ARTETA'S free-scoring Arsenal made Premier League history after hitting Sheffield United for six.

The title-chasing Gunners became the first team in English football history to win three consecutive away games by a margin of five or more. Ben White scored to make it 6-0 with the 10,000th goal in their history.

They also equalled their biggest-ever Premier League away win - only set last month with a 6-0 win at West Ham - on a grim night for United as Bramall Lane was soon left half empty.

Bruno's KO fear

BY DAVID McDONNELL
BRUNO FERNANDES has admitted Manchester United face a huge struggle to qualify for the Champions League after their derby defeat.

United's 3-1 loss at Manchester City (skipper Fernandes, right) was their 11th in the Premier League this season and they sit 11 points off Aston Villa, who are fourth.

With 11 games left to play, United's hopes of an immediate return to the Champions League look remote, even if fifth spot
